About the Apartments
The First Place Apartments offer a diverse suite of supports, amenities and community life options included in the monthly rate to help residents thrive as they chart their individual paths to more independent living.

- Support specialists assist residents in developing life skills and adapting supports to each resident’s strengths, interests and needs.
- The community life coordinator leads a dynamic schedule of fun activities and special events.
- The vocational coordinator helps residents identify their skill sets and job interests.
- The health & wellness coordinator supports residents in making healthy nutrition, exercise and lifestyle choices.

A diverse community of pride, purpose and endless possibilities.
